DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

The headings were missing in the specification such as the background or related art of the invention, summary of the invention, and brief description of the drawings, etc...

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or
REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
  - (1) Field of the Invention.
  - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).

Art Unit: 2668

- (I) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being unpatentable by Huang, US Patent No. 6,693,897 B1.

Regarding claims 1-2, Huang discloses a method and system of screening and control of telephone calls while using a packet-switched data network. Huang discloses the system comprises a call alerting and control system (CACS, or view point), Internet service provider (ISP) or remote access server 114, that connects to the Internet 104. Huang discloses the client system 110 connects to the service switching point 116 by an ISDN network (fig. 4, col. 9, lines 33-36). The client system interconnects with the ISP 114, SSP116, Internet 104 and gateway 106 (fig. 2). CACS manages incoming calls from a calling party to an Internet user ("user") while the user maintains a connection to the Internet, col. 1, lines 48-51. The Gateway System instructs the Client System to notify the user of the incoming call and prompts the user to choose a call handling option. CACS also allows the user to reroute or treat, at the user's choice, either maintaining or disconnecting the user's connection to the Internet by selecting options from a pop-up window, col. 3, lines 2-5, col. 5, lines 51-60, col. 7, lines 33-45, col. 9, lines 25-30 (following establishment of a connection from a personal computer to the provider via the Internet by means of ISDN, a notice is contained in the information offered by the provider that the offered information can also be retrieved directly via the ISDN, in improved transmission quality, via a viewpoint; for the purpose of improving the transmission quality of the offered information, the connection via the internet is interrupted by the user and a connection is established to the viewpoint of the provider via the ISDN and the information is transmitted.)

Furthermore, Huang teaches that the system has Various mechanisms that can be used to register or deregister the Client System 110 from the registration service 122 including the user manually registering or deregistering upon initiation or termination of the Internet connection and/or automatic registration or deregistration by the Client System 110 upon signing-on or exiting the Internet, col. 3, lines 44-50 (following completion of the transmission via the ISDN, the user selects whether or not the connection via the Internet is to be restored.)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Huang as shown above in view of Ko et al., US Patent No. 5,479,407 A.

Regarding claims 3, Huang does not disclose the user can select whether the transmission is to be effected via a B channel or via 2B channels. However, Ko discloses Channel utilization method and system for ISDN, wherein the system dynamically allocates b channels corresponding system's demand, abstract, col. 3, lines 59-67. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to adapt Ko's method into the system disclosed by Huang in order to optimize the bandwidth, and improve quality of service in the system.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
